WELCOME
TO THE 2017 NATIONAL BOOK FESTIVAL!

You can get this map stamped with interesting state symbols from each of the state tables in the Pavilion of the States. The pavilion is brought to you through the generous support of the Institute of Museum and Library Services (imls.gov), with additional support from the National Endowment for the Humanities (neh.gov) and in cooperation with the Chief Officers of State Library Agencies (cosla.org). Visit their websites to learn more about these great organizations.

There is an affiliated Center for the Book in each state, the District of Columbia and the U.S. Virgin Islands. These centers spread the word throughout the land that "books give us wings." Visit the Center for the Book's website (read.gov) to find out where your state center is located and to learn about the exciting programs offered by your affiliate Center for the Book.

Discover Great Places Through Reading . . .

Your Map to Some Great Books and Great Places

Don't forget to check out the reading list on the back. It offers suggested books for each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia and the U.S. territories. Read your home state's book, and then discover other places by reading those states' books.

The Pavilion of the States is supported by the Institute of Museum and Library Services, with additional support from the National Endowment for the Humanities and in cooperation with the Chief Officers of State Library Agencies and the Library of Congress Center for the Book.
